

PRESS RELEASE
23rd June 2016

DISABLED SPORT

AUSY is a partner of the BNP Paribas French Open wheelchair tennis tournament

From 21st to 26th June 2016

AUSY, a consulting and engineering company in Advanced Technologies, places disability at the heart of its priorities.

AUSY's disability policy: 5 commitments

This year, AUSY is a partner of the BNP Paribas French Open wheelchair tennis tournament. This major tournament of the worldwide Super Series is also the 1st international wheelchair tennis tournament organised in Europe by the Fédération Française Handisport (French Disabled Sports Federation). This event will be held over 6 days, from 21st to 26th June at the Parc Interdépartemental des Sports d'Antony (in the Sceaux park).

About one hundred players from 20 countries will take part. The Japanese Yui Kamiji and Shingo Kunieda who won the men's and women's singles titles respectively will also be present. Top French players such as Stéphanie Houdet, current world champion, Nicolas Peifer and Michaël Jérémiasz will also take part, as well as the current French female champion Charlotte Famin.

This event is an opportunity for AUSY to raise awareness among its employees about disabilities and to promote their newly established disability policy.

This policy is guided by five commitments:

- recruit new talents,
- maintain and develop skills,
- guarantee favourable working conditions for disabled employees,
- raise awareness among employees about disability,
- encourage partnerships with disability-friendly companies.

To raise awareness among its managers, consultants and site facilitators, a presentation will be made available so that you can discuss this topic freely, without taboos.
